

Hoshizaki America EMS Scope

The scope of the Hoshizaki America EMS (Environmental Management System) shall include the following: All processes and activities associated with the manufacture of commercial ice machines, ice storage bins, remote condensers, dispensers, commercial refrigerated and non-refrigerated kitchen equipment. This shall also include all non-manufacturing processes such as shipping, receiving, the handling, recycling and/or disposal of all metals, tubing, liquids, hazardous and non-hazardous wastes.